SUBJECT: Seminar Critique

1. I would like your comments and recommendations on the Executive Development Elective Seminar on Counterintelligence that you attended earlier this month. This two-hour program was the first in a series of Critical Issues Seminars we are planning to offer on a bi-monthly basis. Since this program is new, I need your input to determine if we should continue this series. If you feel such a program is worthwhile, I would also be interested to know what subjects or topics you would like to have addressed as a "Critical Issue".

CRITICAL ISSUES: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE
Participant Critique

Unusually worthwhile because of the fascinating subject. Maybe hard to make other "critical issues" sound as interesting. My favorite is the "ADP crisis".
